LOOKING AHEAD:

DYD has many exciting projects planned for the year ahead to increase investments in youth development and expand our networks.

1

- Holding a Fall 2023 DYD Youth Summit
- Completing countywide expansion for the Youth Diversion program
- Launching Youth Development Networks
- Supporting demonstration projects for school-based crisis response, restorative practices, and 24-hour youth centers

2

- Expanding access to Credible Messenger mentorship and Youth Development care coordination for system-impacted youth
- Supporting a Safe Healing Center demonstration project for girls and gender expansive youth

3

- Expanding both communications and research and evaluation activities
- Developing a participatory Youth Development research framework

4

- Completing a comprehensive strategic plan
- Continuing to advance opportunities for shared learning and policy change to advance the vision and values of Youth Justice Reimagined
